Poor Babies' Free Doctor Fund

NOW BEING RAISED BY

THE EVENING WORLD.

colorld.

for His Big Pupil.

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.]

Villiam Muldoon tossed Pugilistic Gladiator

John L. Sullivan about the cushioned carpe

The Sullivan party arrived in this city from was called by Referee Tommy O'Neill at

After a few preliminary bouts by lesser lights

The two men went to work right away. Muldoon took hold of Sullivan's head with both hands and handled the big fellow very roughly for a few seconds, and the crowd yelled with delight.

delight.

Then Sullivan got a grip on the wrestler and tried to throw him over his hip.

He did so, but Muldoon landed on his hands and knees.

The two locked arms and went at it again.
Muldoon grasped Sullivan about the waist and threw him to the carpet, but he landed on his

Men Whom You Can Hire to Murder

DR. REYNOLDS WINS.

Against the Insurance Companies.

The jury in Part L of the Supreme Court in the trial of the suit brought by Dr. Will

SHORT WEIGHT IN COAL.

Mayor Grant Petitioned to Ald in Punishing Dishonest Dealers.

Mayor Grant is in receipt of a communication from the Coal Exchange asking him to delegate some city official to act in conjunction with a Committee of the Exchange in the detection and punishment of retail coal dealers who are alleged to be defrauding the public by selling short weight.

While the Mayor thinks the request a very reasonable one, he fears that he cannot comply with the request, as ther, appears to be no authority in law for the appointment or delegation of such an official.

Bill Nye's Observations on Staten Island-

The Cause of His Death a Mystery. The body of an unknown man was taken from the Eagle Hotel. Hoboken, yesterday, by Coroner

O'Hara, of Hudson County, N. J. The deceased had registered the night before as 'John Smith.

The hotel proprietor said that no one was with

The hotel proprietor said that no one was with "at the time. There were black marks on the left side of the neck and on the left arm, apparently the result of brunes. A few cents und some Brooklyn Bridge tickets ere found in the dead man's pockets, and on the margin of a newspaper was written in pencil. "Miss Jane Barnes, No. 8 Westervelt avenue. New Brighton, staten Island." A post-moriem examination will be made and an inquest heid. A man and a woman committed suicide in the same hotel a few month, ago.

Examining Tax Officials.

the tax officials of New York and Brooklyn for

Read the SUNDAY WORLD.

Read the SUNDAY WORLD.

spread on the ground to receive the fallen.

NELLIE BLY IN THE ONEIDA COMMUNITY.

READ THE SUNDAY WORLD

A specimen New York Thug. MURDEBOUS SCOUNDBELS WHO CAN BE HIBED TO COMMIT ANY CRIME.

PRICE ONE CENT.

PRICE ONE CENT.

Big Fund Is Reaffimed.

nent New York Irishman.

Camp 96, Clan-na-Gael.

Minister Patrick Egan, who is to sail

THAT $100,000.

WHERE DID HE GET THE MONEY?

DAMAGING TO SULLIVAN.

CAMP 96'S PART IN IT.

es seem to have combined.

been divulged.

SULLIVAN'S VISIT TO ST. LOUIS.

STARKEY APPEARS IN TORONTO.

Let the Little Folks Road the SUNDAY

Curiosities at the Doad Letter Office See

WORLD'S Children's Page

the SUNDAY WORLD.

to the Land League funds.

the character of Mr. Sullivan.

at the time.

EGAN DENIES

CORONER HANLY HEARS THE STORY OF WATCHMAN RAFFERTY'S DEATH, But the Story of Sullivan and the

The Lumber Merchant Repeats His State ment of Striking in Self-Defense-Dr. Doulin, Who Made the Autopsy, Says Rafferty's Skull Was Unusually This-The Declaration and Question of a Promi-The Coroner Puzzled.

Charles R. Partridge, the lumber merchant who is charged with killing Frank Rafferty, a laborer, at his lumber-yard on Something May Develop Concerning Wednesday last by striking him on the head with a measuring rule, came before Justice Patterson at Jefferson Market Police Court this morning, accompanied by his counsel. In view of the death of Rafferty, the case was sent down to Coroner Hanly. morrow on the Pera for his post in Chili, is Mr. Partridge had left town to go to Elvery indignant over the story told by Mortimira, N. Y., immediately after he had given mer Scanlan, of Chicago, of his alleged transbail in $10,000 last Wednesday morning. actions with Alexander Sullivan in relation His wife was sick there, and he intended to return to New York as soon as possible. He is stopping at the Gilsey House and ex-

When he reached Elmira and learned that pressed himself in very emphatic terms about Rafferty had died at the hospital he came back those whom, he says, are trying to blacken immediately, arriving in town last night and, He claims that the story that he turned over $100,000 of the League funds to Sullivan while he was Treasurer of that organization is absolutely false, and that it was exploded Every dollar of the funds of the Land immediately, arriving in town last night and, going at once to the Twentieth street police station, gave himself up.

At the Coroner's office this morning he was accompanied by Lawyer House, his counsel, and several riends, who were ready to go on his bond should new bail be required.

Mr. Partridge is a tall, well-built man, of about forty years of age. He wears a heavy dark mustache and imperial and his complexion is tanned a deep bronze. He seemed to be very anxious and nervous this morning and was evidently worrying about the case.

In his statement, he claims that Rafferty made an attack on him first and threatened to kill him, and he only struck him with the Mr. Partridge is a tall, well-built man, of about forty years of age. He weare a heavy dark mustache and imperial and his complexion is tanned a deep bronze. He seemed to be very anxious and nervous this morning and was evidently worrying about the case.

In his statement, he clasims that Rafferty made an attack on him first and threatened to kill him, and he only struck him with the measuring rod, which he held in his hand, in self-defense. He did not imagine that the blow was hard enough to do any serious injury.

Dr. Donlin, the Coroner's physician, who made an autopsy on Rafferty's body yesterday with Dr. Ferguson, says the man's skull was the thinnest he ever saw.

The men called Policeman Lahey, of the Thirty-third Frecinct, to the spot and then the three men examined the corpse.

Thirty-third Frecinct, to the spot and then the three men examined the corpse.

The body was somewhat decomposed, as if it had tain there some days.

The dead man appeared to be about thirty years old, 5 feet 7 inches in height, with dark hair and sandy mustache, and was dressed in a blue flaunel suit, white stockings, laced shoes, whi e shirt collar and necktle.

A brand-new 38-ca ibre revolver of the bull-dop pattern was tightly clutched in the right and and two chambers were empty. The other three barrels were loaded.

A brown derby hat lay a few feet out from the body.

Judging by his dress and appearance the Every dollar of the funds of the fand League, he says, has been accounted for, and Mr. Parnell himself, who knows just what disposition was made of the money raised for the Irish cause, has taken the trouble to deny the story publicly.

No such sum, he says, was ever given away, and those who are now revamping this report care more about injuring Sullivan than they do about bringing the murderers of Dr. Croniu to justice. Croniu to justice.
Upon this point a prominent Irishman in this city offers an explanation which puts the matter in a somewhat different light.

was the thinnest he ever saw.

At the temples, where the blow was struck which caused the fracture, the bone was only one-thirty second of an inch in thickness, where in an ordinary persen it is at least one-sighth inch think

"I don't think any one," he says, "who has any knowledge whatever of the sfairs of the Clan-na-Gael will deny that about the time when this alleged transaction between Sullivan, Sheridan and Egan is said to have taken place on the other side tha. Sullivan came into possession of a very large sum of money which, it was understood, was to be used by the Clan-na-Gael in pushing forward its physical force work in Ireland.

"It has also been pretty well established that of the sum which he then obtained bullivan actually paid over $18,000 to the treasury of the Clan-na-Gael, and at the same time deposited $82,000 to his private account in a now defunct Chicago bank, which seems never to have been accounted for.

WHERE DID HE GET THE MONEY?

where in an ordinary persen it is at least oneeighth inch thick.

"It was just like an eggahell," said the doctor, "and it is a wonder that a man of his reckless habits should not have had his skull smashed in long before."

It is said that Rafferty was an ex-convict, having served a term in State prison for an atrocious assault upon a woman, and was known as a desperate character.

Coroner Hanly did not know exactly what to do in the case, and took Lawyer House over to the District Attorney's office for legal advice upon the subject. advice upon the subject.

They held a protracted session.

Partridge's bail was fixed at $10,000.

Queer Things in the Mail-See the SUN-DAY WORLD.

SENT TO RANDALL'S ISLAND. Final Disposition of Matron Webb's

"Where did he get the money if not from Egan? It must have been raised somewhere, and it is well known that both Sullivan and Sheridan went over to see Egan in Paris and were with him some time before they finally came back with the money.

"It may not have come from the money contributed directly to the funds of the Land Leagne. I do not think it did, but there were other funds which came into Egan's hands, it is understood, upon which an organization like the Clan-na-Gael, which was formed for the purpose of assassination and secret murder of supposed enemies of the Irish cause, had a special claim.

DAMAGING TO SULLIVAN. Abandoned Waif. The waif boy who has been in the custody of Matroff Webb for forty hours was sent to the Jefferson Market Police Court this morning to be turned over to the Commissioners of Charities and Correction.

The little fellow, who answers to any name "The damaging point against Sulltvan is that he had this money and has not yet ac-counted for it, and that Dr. Cronin had made some important discoveries in connection with it, which furnished sufficiently strong that is mentioned, and whom, it is believed, has been cruelly abandoned by his parents or been craelly abandoned by his parents or guardians, will go to the Randall's Island Refuge, where his identity probably will be lost. In due time he will form one of a company of boys to be shipped West.

Farm life, doubtless, will be his lot, and perhaps, like many others of the army of "some body's darlings" who have been picked up in the streets of New York, he will search the city many years hence to huut up his pedigree and find the parents who threw him upon the cold charity of the world in his tender youth. Thus history repeats itself. grounds for making a direct charge of em-bezzlement against Sullivan and his asso-ciates in the "triangle" which ruled the Clan-in-Gael in the West. I can conceive how such a sum as Sullivan is alleged to have received might have come to him through Egan, and yet never be traceable directly to the general fund of the Land League.

"I think that before the investigation into these matters goes much further it will be discovered that this is the secret of that motorious deal."

The Sacred River of India-Frank G. Carpenter in the SUNDAY WORLD.

KILRAIN DUE TO-DAY.

Meanwhile the Chicago police are still shadowing Sullivan and several other suspected persons in that city, and it is stated upon good authority that Camp 56, of the Clan-na-Gael, is destined to play a conspicuous part in the developments of the immediate future. He Will Hasten to Baltimore to Attend His Mother's Funeral.

Jake Kilrain and Charley Mitchell are due to day on the Adriatic. But the Adriatic is rather a slow boat and it is probable she will not heave in sight until to-morrow. In all probability Jake will not tarry in this Sullivan has gone so far as to retain counsel, so as to be prepared for any proceedings which may be instituted against him as a result of the present investigations.

Both he and his counsel, of course, deny the truth of the reports of Dr. Cronin's discoveries, and claim that there is a conspiracy to ruin Sullivan's character, in which all his enamines seem to have combined. city even for a few hours, but will hasten on to Baltimore to attend the funeral of his dead mother.

The talk that Jake's sad loss might cause a postponement of the match with Sullivan is nonsense.

The men are bound by iron-clad articles, and a delay would be impossible unless one of the principals desires to forfeit $10,000.

The toss for a battle-ground, according to the articles, is to occur June 8. This next act in the great pugilistic drama will probably take place in Charley Johnson's place, in Brooklyn. One of the latest stories is that Sullivan and another Chicago man went down to St. Louis during the last Democratic National Convention, and spent considerable time and trouble investigating Dr. Cronin's record in that city, with a view to obtaining damaging evidence against him. They visited a number of persons who had known Dr. Cronn intimately when he first came to St. Louis, and some of whom afterward became his enemies. What they found out has never been divisited. BASEBALL STANDING OF THIS MORNING.

The Oddest Museum inthe Country-Read the SUNDAY WORLD.

The League.

A Year Age Te-Day. AMERICAN ABO'M LEAGUE. Chicago 21 b 700 Brooklyn 25 9
Boston 20 12 625 Uncinnati 23 9
New York 16 12 71 5 L Louis 19 8
New York 16 12 17 18 L Louis 19 8
New York 16 12 4 18 18 Louis 19 8
New York 16 12 14 50 Athletic 14 15
Phif d'p la 13 14 481 Baltimere 13 15
Pitaburg 12 15 448 Cleve and 11 21
Ind'napolis 12 15 446 Cleve and 11 21
Ind'napolis 12 15 31 16 Louisville 22
Washingt'n 8 21 275 Eans's City 7 Buseball To-Day.

It is an off day on the schedules. The only championship game regularly booked that of Kansas City at Baltimore.

Pussies and Prizes in the SUNDAY

NEW YORK, IR DAY, MAY 31, 1889.

A Mysterious Suicide Recognized as The New York Police Present a Fine | Wrestler Muldoon Is Yet Too Much | The Bridegroom Crossed the Conti-Henry Steinbruck.

Brains Blown Out.

The Monograms on His Jewelry and Linen Furnished the Clues.

In the temporary morgue at the foot of One Hundred and Twentieth street and First avenue this morning there lay the body of a man with a gaping bullet wound in the right temple.

The body was found by William Pursell. of 421 West Forty-eighth street, and his friend, Timothy Donohue, last evening as they were returning from a fishing excur-

They found the body in a clump of bushes a few feet from the sidewalk at One Hundred and Sixty-fifth street, about a block west of Jerome avenue.

The men called Policeman Lahey, of the Judging by his dress and appearance the man had evidently been in good circumman had evidently been in good circumstances.

Upon searching the body Policeman Lahey found three solid gold studs of foreign make, a gold collar-button and two sleeve-buttons made in England.
On their face they bore in letters of gold the letters "H. S."
In the clothing were found two Yale locks, one dime, a meerschaum cigar-holder and a fine linen hem-atitched handkerchief embroidered with the initials "H. S." in monogram.

broidered with the initials "H. S." in monogram.

A piece of paper was also found on which was written in German: "Henry Hansen, Pacific House, Twenty-ninth street, between Sixth and Seventh avenues," and a scaled letter addressed to Jennie Vanness, of Twenty-fourth street.

Alss Vanness could not be found this morning by such an indefinite address.

The police believe it is a case of succide.

There is no Pacific House on Twenty-ninth street, but there is an area-way which extends nearly through from Twenty-ninth to Thirtieth street, and it is called Pacific street.

Henry Hansen, a waiter in Delmonico's ives at No. 7 there, but he was alive and well this morning.

He went uptown to see if he could identify the body, which has been removed to the Harlem Morgue.

Later the body was identified as that of Henry Steinbruck.

Bill Nye's Observations on Staten Island-Read the SUNDAY WORLD.

A SLEEPER'S FALL.

Young John Brennan Rolled Down the Fire-

John Brennan, a young man of twenty-three years, who drove a brewery wagon and lived at attered and dying in the court in the rear of his home this morning.

He lay down on the rear fire-escape last even-

He lay down on the rear fire-escape last evening to take a nap in the cool night air. About 10 o'clock his sister sailed him, but he said that he would not come in and that if he fell asleep his brother, who was coming home, would wake him up before midnight.

An hour or more later he rose on his knees and was about to crawl through the window, when one of the shutters blew against him. He turned around, put out his hand and pushed it back. In doing so he lost his balance and tell over the edge of the fire-escape platform and down the fire-escape well three stories to the stone flagging in the rear court.

He struck on the right side of his head, smashing the back part of his skull on one side. He died before a physician could arrive.

The Summer Resorts-Where and What They Are this Season-SUNDAY WORLD Rev. Mr. Schweinfurth Driven Off Again. ST. CHARLES, Minn., May 31.—Lars Nelsen, farmer living near Saratoga, six miles from here, to-day stumbled upon the hiding-place of Rev. George J. Schweinfurth, the so-called Christ of the Beekmanites. Several days ago Schweinfurth fled from Rockford, Ill., which place the Beekmanites call heaven, to escape arrest. He came here, but his adherents said that he would be arrested, and advised him to seek a more secluded spot, which he did. This afternoon Nelsen went into the haymow of his harm and there discovered a man wrasped in a travelling rug and fast saleep. Nelsen thought the sleeper was a tramp. He routed him out, where upon Schweinfurth announced that he was no other than Christ. The declaration caused Nelsen to burst into I sughter, at which Schweinfurth chided him and urged him to embrace the faith of the Beekmanites and reverence their Christ. Nelsen would not be persuaded and then Schweinfurth tried to bribe Nelsen to shelter him and keep the fact secret. The farmer declared, and after driving Schweinturth from the farm gave information to the authorities as to the whereabouts of the blasphemous man. Several of the most influential Beekmanites set out in advance of the officers and took Schweinfurth towards Winona, where a new hiding-place for the impostor will probably be found. Rev. George J. Schweinfurth, the so-called

Punishing Pennsylvania Brigands SOMERSET, Pa., May 31 .- The jury in the case of the McClellandtown bandits, charged with torturing and robbing old man Yoder and his family, returned a verdict of guilty last night against Louis Tasker and the two Sullivans. These men terrorized the counties of Somerset and Payette for several months, and were captured with great difficulty.

The trial of David and Joseph Nicely for the murder of Parmer Umberger after he had been robbed of nearly $20,000, which he had secreted in his house, was then taken up. The prisoners demanded separate trials, which was grauted. David will be tried first. against Louis Tasker and the two Sullivans.

A Den Ruided by Musked Citizens. MESOMINEE, Mich., May 31 .- A notorious den of infamy near Peshtigo, Wis., was raided last night by twenty masked citizens of Marinette. The watchman at the place fired at the attacking party. The fire was returned and the watchman fied with slight wounds. The inmates were turned out and the place burned to the ground. The dive was one of the most notorious in the pineries and was raided by the police only a week ago, but was running again.

His Body Found in the Bushes With His Resplendent in New Uniforms and He Just Picked Sully Up and Slammed From England and San Francisco to the Dazzling White Helmets.

· Appearance on Parade.

Over 1,500 Stalwart Guardians of the Peace in Line.

Boys in blue yesterday; boys in blue to day. The veteran warriors who smelled powder in the civil war and left companions on scores of gory fields in contest with the country's foes turned out yesterday with helmet, sword and musket.

To-day paraded the guardians of the peace. whose field of action is this great town and whose enemy is the law-breaker, with nothing but their trusty "locust" and good strong arms which nature had jointed to their broad shoulders.

The parade of the "Finest" was an imposing one. Fully fifteen hundred able-bodied men, every one of them the embodiment of health and strength, turned out for the annual parade of the metropolitan force.

Stern, active, alert, Supt. Murray held the reins over his prancing horse at the head of the procession. The five battalions were commanded by the inspectors. Chief Inspector Byrnes, sharp, decided and military in his bearing, rode at the front of the First Battalion. He was the object of special admiration, and the people applauded special admiration, and the neople applauded him loudly, as his figure, straight as an Indian's, came in view for the reviewing party on the grand at nd and greeted the eyes of the immense throng at Madison Square.

Inspector Henry V. Steers, stout, massive, majestic, led the Second Battalion.

Then the old-time hero of the "Tenderloin District," that dariing of the people, handsome Alexander B. Williams, received a big round of applause as he made his prancing charger curvet and dance, while he stuck to his saddle like a centaur.

Inspector Peter Conlin, none the worse for his Centennial fall, neat as a pin and as Inspector Peter Conlin, none the worse for his Centennial fall, neat as a pin and as plucky as a gamy bantam, held the Fourth Battalion well in hand.

The Fifth Battalion was in charge of Capt. Theron S. Copeland, the dean of the police captains. Gray bearded and with traces of his years on his face, he looked as sound and firm as a hickory nut.

That was the outfit, and the commanders were a fine set of men. But there were equally fine-looking fellows in the rank and file that marched in regular symmetrical lines with the precision and well kept time of trained soldiers.

trained soldiers.

During the forenoon there was no particu-

During the forenoon there was no partial ar excitement at Police Headquarters. The officers and men formed at the Battery, so there was nothing to call for a gathering at the big brick house on Mulberry street. The there was nothing to call for a gathering at the big brick house on Mulberry street. The inspectors and captains went down to the Battery on the L or in the horse-cars or in cabs, as the spirit moved them.

The green park at the end of Manhattan Island was alive and swarming with the blue-coats at noon. The ways were niled with the big iellows, their snowy-white new Spring helmets, which they got about a week ago, making a showy contrast with the green of the Battery sward.

By 1 o'clock they were pretty well mar shalled into line, and up the main thoroughfare of the city streamed the long procession of fifteen hundred "coppers."

It was a goodly show, one that did not have to take a second place with anything that the city saw in the pride of its Centennial processions or the dignified impressiveness of its Decoration Day parades. Through the finest street of the finest city in the New World strode the "Finest" at their best.

Supt. Murray, with his staff, all mounted on superb horses, came in the van. His staff consisted of Capt. Allaire, of the Broadway Squad; Chief Surgeon Stephen G. Cook. Sergts, Charles M. Granger, Gustavus Dahlgren, George H. Hav ns, Francis J. Kerr, James Don van, lichard Coffey and Color-Bearer Roundsman Henry Frero.

Different bands of music were scattered through the ranks, and the martial strains of these military bands exhilarated and sustained the blue-clad legs that tramped, tramped, tramped over the slippery paving-stones.

stones.

Every boot was neatly polished, the brass buttons on the coats were as bright as gold and the white belinets looked as clean and crisp as if they were just "done up" and sent from the laundry.

The people turned out en masse to look at their favorites, for there is no doubt that the police are admirable creatures to the great majority of the community. Curiosities at the Dead Letter Office_Se the SUNDAY WORLD.

ADIEU, OLD JACK WILDEY.

DEATH REMOVES A NOTABLE CHARACTER WELL KNOWN AT CITY HALL.

Old Jack Wildey is dead. He was a familia figure about the City Hall. The tall, lank form of the old man, attired in a semi-uniform, which included the coat of the old Volunteer Fire Department, was wont to shamble about through the corridors, and his old-time friends who gathered there would note with regret the vacant stare, and sorrowfully with regret the vacant stare, and sorrowfully tap their foreheads, as if to say: "Poor old Jack! He's off in his upper story."

But Jack Widey was not always thus. At one time he was among the notables of Manhattan Isiand.
He loined the old Volunteer Fire Department in 1848, and was for many years Foreman of Engine Company No. 11.
He went to the front during the civil war, as Captain of Company I, Eleventh New York Volunteers, and was credited with saving the colors of the Nixty-ninth Regiment at the first battle of Bull Run.
The prominence given him by this event led to his securing the Tammany Hall nomination for the then extremely lucrative office of Coroner, to which he was elected.
The fees of his office and the profits of a concert hall, which he arterwards run on Broadway, made him independently rich, but, like many another good fellow, his wealth disappeared like dew before the sun.
Wildey was a great friend of Boss Tweed, and with him and others organized the original Mutual Baseball Club which, with the Atlantics, of Brooklyn. was among the first professional clubs.
He died Wednesday last at Bellevue Hospital

The Board of State Assessors are meeting at the Tax Commissioners office to-day to examine olubs.

He died Wednesday last at Bellovue Hospita at the age of sixty-six years, and was buried this afternoon from Slevin's undertaking establishment in Spring street.

PARTRIDGE'S FATAL BLOW. "H. S." IDENTIFIED. BLUECOATS MARCH. THREW JOHN L.TWICE 6,000 MILES TO WED

nent and His Bride the Ocean.

Him Down on the Carpet. Washington Square Parsonage.

Three Great Bouts Before 2,000 De-The Romantic Ceremony Only Awaited lighted People at Gloucester. the Gallia's Arrival at Her Dock.

MARRIED.

GEORGE-JENKYN. -At the parsonage of the Washington Square Methodist Episcopal Church, by the Rev. C. H. McAnney, Mar-TIN GEORGE, of San Francisco, to Caroline JENKYN, of England. PHILADELPHIA, May 31.—Two thousand peo-ple who visited the Gloucester ball grounds yeserday afternoon are still talking about the delightful way in which Wrestling Gladiator

The marriage of the contracting parties mentioned in the above advertisement taken from this morning's paper caps the climax to Cincinnati in the morning and proceeded late a pretty little romance.

Mr. George is a mining operator of Caliin the day to Gloucester, where the wrestling fornia, and the bride, Miss Jenkyn is the daughter of an old English family. She ar-After a few preliminary bouts by lesser lights of the gladiatorial arena the great events of the day were brought about.

Heferee O'Neill announced that the ''champion of all champions. Joun L. Sullivan, would wrestle William Muldoon three bouts," and the crowd gave a great cheer. Gladiator Sullivan, in black tights, was seen to vault over the bar down the left field side of the grounds and start across to the carpet. Mr. Muldoon followed him in lavender tights.

The two men went to work right away. Mulrived in the city yesterday afternoon on the steamship Gallia, and the wedding was held at 8 o'clock in the evening.

Mr. George is described as a stalwart, healthy looking young fellow of about twenty-eight years, refined both in manner and speech. The bride is tall and stately, with a beautiful, well-rounded figure, and was dressed elegantly. She is young, and has a pair of sparkling eyes, rosy lips, heavy eyebrows and wealth of beautiful hair.

Mr. George came from England some time ago and went West, settling down in San Francisco and continuing his profession as mining overator.

Manawhile an active correspondence when up by means of Uncle Sam's and Royal Bretish mail service, and it was Royal British mail service, and it was de-cided a short time ago that the young lovers should meet in New York and be married. Accordingly, Miss Jenkyn prepared for her journey across the ocean to the arms of her lover. She took passage on the Gallia, which left Liverpool on the 21st inst. Mr. George, the happy bridegroom, made the trip across the continent in a railroad train.

train.

When the Gallia reached her dock yester-

When the Gallia reached her dock yesterday there was not a more auxious person on it than the young mining operator. Miss Jenkyn stood on the deck among a crowd of passengers, and Martin George gazed from face to face until his eye lit upon the form of his ideal.

Then there was a waving of handkerchiefs and there was even a suggestion of a kiss passing through the air.

After the fair passenger had disembarked the comple had their baggage taken care of and left for supper.

Shortly: efore 8 o'clock last night the comple called at the residence of the Rev. C. H. Mc. Anney, pastor of the Washington Square Methodist Episcopal Church, who lives in West Fourth street, near Macdougal.

They were accompanied by Officer John Stevens, of the Gallia, and the marriage ceremony was performed, Stevens acting as one of the witnesses.

The bride said she was Carol ne Jenkyn, daughter of Charles Landyn and history.

The two locked arms and went at it again.

Muldoon grasped Sullivau about the waist and threw him to the carpet, but he landed on his side.

Then Sullivan got a good hold on Muldoon, and, by using all his strength, forced Muldoon's two shoulders to the carpet, and he was awarded the first fail. The time was two minutes.

The second round was more exciting. Therwas not much science displayed, but a greadeal of strength was exhibited.

The two gladiators alternated in picking one another up and trying to throw him on his back. They rolled over each other several times in their efforts, and when Sullivan fell upon Muldoon once or twice the people thought he had driven him into the ground, he came down so heavily.

When Sullivan was thrown he went nowd on the carpet like a log.

After several unsuccessful attempts Muldoon finally landed Sullivan on his shoulders in three minutes, and honors were even.

The big Boston gladiator was puffing a great deal at the end of this bout, and it was evident that he was rlightly winded. He came up smiling, however, for the third and last bout.

After shaking hands Muldoon went at Sullivan as though he meant business.

He grabbed his head and shook it viciously, and when John L. breks loose his face and ears were very red.

After: Sullivan had tripped Muldoon and thrown mission his side the laster grasped Sullivan in his arms, lifted him from his feet and throw mins with great force upon the broad of his back.

The falls seemed heavy enough to shake the earth. The growd yelled delightedly as Muldoon stood over he fallen gladiators. It na twinkling they were surrounded by a mob of 1,000 or 1,500 people. It was with the greatest difficulty that they reached their drewback his right arm as if to deliver Muldoon a ledge-hammer blow, but he didn't.

Then nearly everybody in the grounds made a mad rush for the two gladiators. It na twinkling they were surrounded by a mob of 1,000 or 1,500 people. It was with the greatest difficulty that they reached their drewsing-room, the police bein mony was performed, Stevens acting as one of the witnesses.

The bride said she was Carol ne Jenkyn, daughter of Charles Jenkyn and Elizabeth Wallace. She was a native of England and said her age was twenty nine years.

The bridegroom gave the name of Martin George, and said he was born in England, but was now a resident of San Francisco. Cal. His parents are Martin George and Agnes Scarle. He is thirty years old.

They seemed jolly and full of li's, and before leaving the parsonage they told Mr. refore leaving the parsonage they told M

McAnney that they would stay in New York a few days, in order to see the town, and would then go out West again.

Rev. McAnney says they appeared to be one of the hampest couples he has ever united in matrimony.

Verdict for $2,000 in One of His Suits

Bill Nye on Staten Island-In the SUN-DAY WORLD.

and Results of Hazing Sister Students.

(SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.) WATERVILLE. Me., May 31.—Four sportive students of Colby College are in very melan-choly mood to-day, and their hard fate has won iam M. Reynolds against the Firemen's Insurance Company, of Newark, has rendered a werdict of $2,000, the full amount of the policy held by the doctor.

This is but one of a dozen suits instituted by Dr. Reynolds to recover the amount of his poli-cies on the beautiful country residence at Flush-ing which he was accused of firing on Feb. 20, 1887. them the sympathy of nearly all their fellow students, male and female. Two of the melancholy quartet are Seniors and two are Freshmen.
About three weeks ago they procured a hose and late at night attached it to a hydrant commanding a view of the "Co-eds" aleeping apartments in Ladies Hall. Then they succeeded in attracting several scantily clad young ladies to a window and startled them with a sudden drenching. The Doctor and Mrs. Reynolds, who is a daughter of the late Oliver Charlick, were both indicted on the charge of fraudulent claims of loss by the fire. The doctor was tried two months ago, and the result was the complete vindication of both himself and wife.

The London Assurance Corporation were the prosecuting witnesses, and the Reynoldses have sued them for $50,000 damages for false prosecution. Mrs. Reynolds is a quarter-millionaire and the doctor is himself very wealthy.

a window and startled them with a sudden drenching.
One of the young ladies who was thus favored with an unexpected shower bath is the daughter of a trustee of the college, and he brought the matter up before the Board of Trustees. The result is that the four culprits have been suspended. The two Seniors will be allowed to graduate, but the Freshmen are suspended indefinitely. The Senior class take of foregoing all class-day exercises at Commencement; the Freshmen are talking of going on a general strike, and the "Co-eds" are disposed to send to coventry the young lady whose complaint has brought down such trouble on the four young men.

Amateur Baseball Notes. Olympics, 12; Bijou 2. Marines, 5; Reptiles, 4. Hamiltons, 3; Prospects, 2. Lafayettes, 7; Manhattan College, 5, Sagamore Juntors, 12; Elkwoods, 3. N. Y. University "Sophs.," 22; Freshmen,

A D. T. Co. Employees, 14; W. U. Tele-graphers, 11. The Mount Pitts are open for challenge, 123 Broome street. Good club wants a manager. W. M. De Vall, 1598 Third avenue. Hattery wanted under eighteen years. G. L. Fallon. 51/2 Jane street. The James Slips are open for challenges. J. McAuliffe, 13 James slip. The Puritans challenge clubs under sixteen years. W. Jost, 86 Gansevoort street.

Battery and a few players under twenty-two years wanted. L. B., 430 East Fifth street. The Diamonds will play clubs under seventeen years. C. Link, 453 West Thirteenth street. The Once a Week Juniors will play clubs under seventeen years. O. Brown, 65 Cannon street. The Jackson Juniors will play clubs under ff-eeu years. G. Oetheimer, 32 Jackson street. The Jays will play clubs under twenty years.
Thompson, 500% Kosciusko street, Brook-The Capitols will play clubs under seventeen rears. C. Comiskey, box 152 New Brighton,

The Melrore Juniors will play clubs under six-teen years. A. Gabriel, 358 East Fifty-third street.

The Pilgrams have open dates for July. G. W. Leirsohn, 124 East One Hundred and Twenty-third street.

HOBOKEN'S MYSTERY

2 O'CLOCK.

Who Is the Dead Man Found in the Eagle Hotel?

He Registered Wednesday Night as John Smith, of Orange,

He is, but Won't Tell.

Coroner O'Hara Says He Knows Who

A mystery surrounds the body of a msa who was found dead in a room at the Eagle Hetel, on Hudson street, Hoboken.

The body is now at O'Hara's morgue, on Washington street. There is nothing about the body to tell whether the man was murdered, whether he committed suicide or died a natural death, but he flesh on one side of the neck is discolored as if decomposition had set in, although, acing to the police report, he has been dead but a

He registered at the hotel about a o'ck esday evening as John Smith, Orange, M. J. The body was found in bed yesterday.

In one of the pockets was found a card with the address of Miss Jane Barrow, New Brighon, S. I. Twenty-nine cents were also found. The police have no information as to the man's identity or the manner in which he met death.

The people at the hotel claim to know nothing of his identity and cannot account for his death. Coroner O'Hara refused to give any information about the man. He claimed he knew what his name was, but refused to tell. The dead man is about thirty-five years old. He was fairly well dressed, and wore a silk hat. He had a full, sandy beard.

The Summer Resorts-Where and What They Are this Season-SUNDAY WORLD. THE DUKE'S WAS A TRIVIAL OFFENSE.

to the Judge Sald, but Mr. Sims Will See How Far Titled Triflers May Go. [BY CABLE TO THE PRESS NEWS ASSOCIATION.] LONDON, May 31. -Judge Bridge, one of the Magistrates of the Metropolitan Police Court, Bow street, has refused to grant a summons against the Duke of Cambridge for assault on Geo. R. Sims, the journalist, during the "ugh

Geo. R. Sims, the journalist, during the "ugly rush" of the crowd at the firemen's parade last Saturday.

Three sworn informations were filed against His Highness, showing that Sims was thrust against him by the crowd, that the Duke seized him by the throat and tore his coat, and then passed him on to one of his companions, who also assanited him.

The magist atc considered the complaint trivial and refused to entertain it.

Mr. Sims is determined not to let the matter drop, and will apply for a mandamus.

He is strongly supported by the Radicals and other extreme elements, who propose to make a test case and ascertain how far the administrators of the law may discriminate between man and man on account of rank and title.

All About the Summer

SUNDAY WORLD THE AUGUSTA VICTORIA ARRIVES.

She Made Only an Average Passage Acres the Ocean.

IN CABLE TO THE PRESS NEWS ASSOCIATION.]
LOSDON. May 31.—The new twin-screw steamer. Augusta Victoria. of the HamburgAmerican line, which sailed from New York on May 25, arrived off the Lizard at 1.55 this morning, making only an average passage.

Great things had been expected of her, but they remain to be realized.

All About the Summer Resorts in the SUNDAY WORLD.

THE LAKE ONTARIO PROBABLY SAFE. She Was Seen Passing Outward by Rimon. ski and All Right.

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.] MONTEKAL. May 31. - There is probably no truth in the rumor that the Beaver line ste Lake Ontario, bound from this city to Liverpool, was lost in the gulf with all on board.

The steamer passed Rimouski, going out, yesterday afternoon and was then all right.

Queer Things in the Mail-See the SUN-AY WORLD.

Will Not Sue the Subway Comm It was announced yesterday that the suit in-stituted by the United States Electric Illuminating Company against the Subway Comm ing Company against the Subway Commessioners. for $250,000 damages on account of the removal of the Company's wires into the subways, has been discontinued. The attorneys of the Company assert that the suit was brought while Eugene Lynch was President of the Company. A new element now controls the stock, and one of the first store of the new stockholders was to withdraw this suit.

Mme. Carnot, the First Lady of France-See the SUNDAY WORLD.

A Wedding Mrs. Cleveland Will Attend. PITTEBURO, May 31.—A daughter of ex-Soicitor Gen. Jenks is to marry Congressman Shively, of the South Bend, Ind., District, Mrs. Cleveland will attend the wedding.

Bill Nye on Staten Island-In the SUN-DAY WORLD.

1880. 63 64 68 Average for past twenty-four hours, do 7-2 degrees Average for corresponding than less year, 712.0

The Sacred River of India Frank G. Carpenter in the SUNDAY WORLD.

information which will assist them in equalizing the State tax. Mayor Chapin, of Brooklyn, was on the stand this morning. A Specimen New York Thug-See the The Olympics (deaf mutes) will play clubs under eighteen years. H. Bettels, Institute for the Deaf, Sation M. SUNDAY WORLD. The Oddest Museum in the Country-Read A Murderous Thug-SUNDAY WORLD.

ONE OF THE MOST SERIOUS CHARGES. One of the most serious charges that Dr. Cronin had made against the leaders of the Order, next to that of embezzlement, was that they had sold out the two dynamiters, Gallagher and Whitehead, who were sent to England to blow up public buildings and otherwise disturb the peace of the British Government. The leaders claimed that they had given these men, who are now in English prisons for life, $97,000 to carry on their operations, but Dr. Cronin and John Devoy discovered that it was only $5.000 that they received, and that it was owing to information furnished to the London police from this side that they were apprehended and convicted. is that of Kansas City as Baltimore.

Indianapolis, however, plays two postponed games at Philadelphia.

New York plays at Newark.

Rt. Louisville at Columbus.

New York begins a series in Washington tomorrow, will play June 6, 7 and 8 in Boston, and will meet the Beaneasters, probably at the Polo Grounds. June 10.